

Lynn Hartmuth - Education Coordinator

The Education Coordinator is an International Appointment. She develops, coordinates, and monitors all education programs; organizes a regional faculty and coordinates faculty visits; evaluates readiness of choruses, prospective chapters, and CAL (chapter-at-large) quartets for public performance.

Lynn has been serving the region as EdC for 4-1/2 years. She also has served the region as an Associate member of the RMT, and has served 2 years as Financial Secretary. Lynn has also held regional positions of DMA Faculty, Q.C. Club President, Quartet and Chorus Coach.

Lynn is currently director of Queen City Chorus in Cincinnati, OH, and sings lead with her quartet, Lasting Impressions. She has served numerous positions with her chorus, including Quartet Promotions Chair, Treasurer, Vice President, President, Show Chair, Choreographer, and Assistant Director.

Lynn has a long history with Sweet Adelines. She has sung with many choruses including: Seven Hills, 11 years; Gem City, 8 years; Prospective - Northern Kentucky, 1 year (director); Oxford, 2 years (director) Towns of Harmony, 1 year (Region 17). She has also sung with several quartets including: Love 'N Sound, 3 years - Regional Champions in 1973; Entrees, 6 years; Crosstown Connection, 5 years. Lynn earned the status of Master Director with Queen City Chorus in 2004.

Lynn lives in West Chester, OH with her best friend and quartet baritone, Pat. They also have 4 cats, and 2 finches. Lynn also has one grown son, Nick. Lynn works as a Loan Processing Supervisor at Beazer Mortgage Corporation in West Chester, OH. "The job pays well, but I like my SAI work better!"

Lynn's entire family has a strong musical background. Her mom sings (a former Sweet Adeline) and plays the piano. Her dad also a former barbershopper, sings, plays the accordion, piano, and organ. He also has his own 6-piece dance band. She was a singer in the band, The Variety Pak, for many years. Lynn studied as a Music and Math Education Major at Murray State in Murray, KY, and at Miami University in Oxford, OH.

"What is your favorite part of serving on the RMT?"

"Having direct contact with so many members of our organization on all levels. I enjoy being a part of all the successes achieved by so many of our choruses and having the opportunity to meet new singers. I love all of the educational opportunities we are offered and being able to share them with all of our members."
